Eagles News - Vol 05

Nov 2nd 2022

Dear Members, Families and Friends, welcome to Vol 05 of the Eagles News for the 2022-2023 summer season.

Yet another week in the senior ranks, where the results haven't gone the way that the Eagles would have liked. It is just a matter of the guys clicking, to get themselves on a roll and to make their mark in the comp this season, but the task will be even more difficult, as we lose 5 players to the ABL. Congratulations to the players that have been selected for their respective ABL teams, we wish you all the best, more details on page 3 of this newsletter. The Thirds and Fourths had their second washout for the season, which is frustrating to say the least, but it is what it is and we just hope that these heavy rains pass us by soon enough. The Masters White team got their game in at Werribee and managed a few runs for their efforts and the Masters Blue team didn't play due to another washout.

In the junior ranks, out of our 7 junior teams, only 2 of them managed to get a game in. It all started on Friday night, with rain soaked grounds and terrible conditions forcing the cancellation of the U12s games at Newport. On the Sunday, we had the U14s Metro West team and the U12s Metro West team take to the fields, on what turned out to be a lovely Sunday morning. The U14s game by all accounts was an absolute ripper, with high quality baseball all-round. The Eagles managed to get the deciding run late in the game and were just stoked. Well done Phil and team, just wonderful to see such enthusiasm and smiles with everyone enjoying their baseball. The U12s game was a tight one to say the least, with only 3 runs scored between both teams for the 2 hour duration. Great stuff Eagles, keep up good work and we look forward to seeing all junior teams take to the fields this week to fly the flag for the EAGLES !!!

HALLOWEEN FUN

We spotted this Zombie Eagle in Couch St on Monday night, scary stuff indeed.

A huge thank you to all of our wonderful & loyal sponsors for their kind support.

ACES BRING BACK TRIO OF RETURNERS IN CRUZ, DALE AND YOUNG

The Melbourne Aces are excited to bring back some key cogs in their past two championship runs, as Jared Cruz, Jarryd Dale, and Jeremy Young have re-signed with the club for the 2022/23 ABL season.

Melbourne Aces media release

is back for his fifth campaign with the Aces. The right-hander has logged 47 strikeouts in 57.0 innings of work in his Aces career. Young has pitched 37 of his 41 career ABL games for the Aces, while he tossed the other four games for Canberra during the 2020/21 season.

The 27-year-old returns to Melbourne after playing in the Dutch Major League earlier in 2022. Young won eight games and posted a 3.73 ERA in 16 appearances, including 10 starts, for RCH in the Netherlands.

Aces season memberships are available online at www.melbourneaces.com.au and kids memberships are only $20 for 20 games. The Aces open their 2022/23 ABL season at Melbourne Ballpark from November 11th-14th against Geelong-Korea.
